

Pre-Test | Basic Vulvovaginal Course

International Society for the Study of Vulvovaginal Disease

This PRE-TEST should be filled out prior to participating in the course and should serve as a starting point for your learning process. Please answer the following questions according to the instructions and images provided at the beginning of the course.

1. This patient's vaginal PH is:
a. b.
2. A biopsy of this eroded vulva should be performed from:
a. b. c. d.
3. Some people believe that wetness is the enemy of the vulva that produces maceration and yeast, so keeping the vulva dry is crucial. Which of the following is true:
a. b. c. d.
4. Concerns regarding the use of a superpotent topical corticosteroid in this patient include which of the following:
a. b. c. d.
5. Many patients feel that poor hygiene causes health issues, specially in the elderly with incontinence, as in this patient with contact dermatitis from urinary incontinence. So, proper cleaning is an important concern. Which of the following is true:
a. b. c. d.
6. This woman has a painful and pruritic area present for three years and needs biopsy. The best sampling method is:
a. b. c. d.
7. The best area for sampling is:
a. b. c. d.
8. When using topical corticosteroids in the vulva, which is a skin fold, principles include:
a. b. c. d.
9. Another wetmount, the following statements about vaginitis are true, except one:
a. b. c. d.

SCORE: _____

DATE: _____

Please continue watching the course to find out if your answers are aligned to the protocols and recommendations of the ISSVD.